
PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL (NEW YORK, N.Y.). EDWARD DANIELS FAULKNER ARTHRITIS CLINIC. Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of the Edward Daniels Faulkner Arthritis Clinic, Presbyterian Hospital, New York, N.Y., 1954.
1 volume (31 p.)

SCOPE AND CONTENT: Report and album commemorating the 25th anniversary of the arthritis clinic at Presbyterian Hospital founded in 1929 with an endowment from Mrs. Edward Daniels Faulkner (Marianne Gaillard Faulkner) in memory of her husband. It consists of a seven page history of the Clinic written by Dr. Ralph H. Boots, the founding director, and 22 pages of photographs of individuals associated with the Clinic.

LANGUAGE: English.

ACCESS: Open; the reproduction of some photos may be restricted under the provisions of the Privacy Rule of the US Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA).

NOTE: Archives & Special Collections holds two copies of the report.

Subjects:

Presbyterian Hospital (New York, N.Y.). Edward Daniels Faulkner Arthritis Clinic.
Arthritis – United States – History.
Photograph albums.

Added Author:

Boots, Ralph H., 1891-1968.