SUMMARY: Notebooks of Montmarquet from his time as a student at the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia College in New York City, 1887-1889.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: Joseph Didier Montmarquet (1860-1906) was born in New Jersey of French Canadian parents. He attended Yale before entering the College of Physicians and Surgeons from which he received his MD in 1889. He married Wilhelmina Zecher in 1891; they had 9 children. Montmarquet practiced in Cohoes, N.Y. He was a founding medical staff member of Cohoes City Hospital, a member of the Board of Health, served as Coroner’s physician and was active in fraternal societies and the Catholic Church. He was a member of the AMA, the Medical Society of the State of New York, and the Albany County Medical Society of which he was vice president at the time of his death.

SCOPE AND CONTENT: There are eight volumes and a few fragments of class notes covering the practice of medicine, surgery, obstetrics and gynecology, physiology, and hygiene, from 1887-1889. Lecturers include William T. Bull, John G. Curtis, Francis Delafield, Charles McBurney, and Thomas M. Markoe.

NOTE: An obituary and memorial statement for Montmarquet from the Albany Medical Annals, February 1907, has been transferred to the Archives & Special Collection Biographical Files.
