COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY. OFFICE OF ASSISTANT VICE PRESIDENT FOR HEALTH SCIENCES ADMINISTRATION.

Records, 1977-1980.

.75 cubic feet (3 boxes)

HISTORICAL NOTE: The Office of Assistant Vice President for Health Sciences was created in July 1977 when John Fiorillo was named to the position. The office was responsible for assisting the Deputy Vice President for Health Sciences Administration in managing the University's Health Sciences Division which included the schools of medicine, nursing, dentistry, and public health. The office was discontinued after Fiorillo's resignation in June 1981.

SCOPE AND CONTENT: These records are clearly only a fragment of those created by the Assistant Vice President's office during its four year existence. They are entirely concerned with the management of the School of Dental and Oral Surgery (SDOS), particularly its dental clinics. Also included are records documenting New York State legislation affecting the funding of dental education; a report on dental chart systems; and records relating to the Governor's Task Force on Dental Education.

LANGUAGE: English.

ACCESS: Records are open without restrictions.
